Judge John Hoffman

vs

Myron Terlecky
Trustee

Case No 2:19-bk-52861

NOTICE OF APPEAL

I would like to inform the court that I am appealing the last order of Judge Hoffman filed July 19, 2024 which disallows the plaintiff from introducing new evidence.

While it is true that the initial case was filed over 2 yrs ago, it must be pointed out that the COVID event has disrupted the normal course of events. Add to this the various other steps that went into the appeal process, such as the plaintiff's case having to go through the local district office, the plaintiff having to represent himself pro se and the need to ask for a certiorari.

In as much as the case was always in another court did not allow the plaintiff to file for the introduction of new evidence. The statutory deadlines cannot work and should not run as long as the case is in another court.

Moreover, it must be pointed out that the new evidence have been brought to light while the appeal is being made, but this being done so in appellate courts, the evidence was not even considered in the said courts.

It is quite known that the bankruptcy judge is in a hurry to retire from the bench, but to deny the introduction of new evidence after the case landed square back in his court for this reason would be a travesty of justice.

Yours Truly,

Jose Villavicencio
